To make chapati, you'll need the following ingredients and steps:

Ingredients:

#NAME?
#NAME?
#NAME?

Instructions:

1. Prepare the Dough:^{}

- Take 1 cup of whole wheat flour (atta) in a mixing bowl.
- Add a pinch of salt (optional).
- Gradually add water, little by little, and mix the flour with your fingers.
- Knead the dough until it becomes smooth and soft. The dough should not be too sticky or too dry. Add more water or flour if needed.

2. Rest the Dough:

- Cover the dough with a damp cloth or plastic wrap and let it rest for at least 15-20 minutes. This allows the gluten to relax and makes rolling easier.

3. Divide and Roll:

- After resting, divide the dough into equal-sized balls (lemon-sized).
- Take one dough ball and flatten it slightly with your palm.
- Dust it lightly with flour and roll it out into a thin circle using a rolling pin. Aim for a diameter of about 6-7 inches.

4. Cook the Chapati:

- Heat a tawa (griddle) or a non-stick pan over medium-high heat.
- Place the rolled chapati on the hot tawa. Cook for about 30 seconds until you see bubbles forming on the surface.

5. Flip and Cook:

- Flip the chapati using tongs or a spatula. The cooked side should have light golden brown spots.

6. Cook the Other Side:

- Cook the other side for about 30 seconds until light golden brown spots appear. Press gently with a cloth or spatula to puff up the chapati.

7. Finish:

- Remove the chapati from the tawa and place it in a plate.
- Optionally, spread a little ghee or oil on top.

8. Repeat:

- Repeat the process with the remaining dough balls, rolling, cooking, and flipping each chapati.

9. Serve:

- Serve hot chapatis with your favorite curry, vegetables, or any side dish of your choice.

Enjoy your homemade chapatis! Adjust the cooking time and heat as needed to achieve the desired texture and doneness.
